

From the Bishop's Desk: Writings of Vladyka SERAPHIM of Canada

Pactical words and the lightness of joy are joined in these writings of Vladyka SERAPHIM of Canada. His central thought is Divine love – love present in the mystery of Holy Communion, where all is inter-related and interconnected; love that is caught and not taught. His words strike the essence of the faith. How does an Orthodox Christian respond to this love and become its bearer? How can our lives reflect a unity of word and action that we might become icons of healing in our fragmented modern times?
